The Jesus Movement, Evangelism, and Resurrection...Oh My!¹

This year, the Diocese of Maryland's Annual Convention featured our Presiding Bishop Michael Curry as a speaker and preacher. Bishop Curry's message was one of inspiration and encouragement, reminding all of us that we are the Episcopal branch of the Jesus Movement—a movement that started in first century Palestine and continues today in 21st century Maryland and around the globe. Saying we're members of Middleham & St.

¹ This article is a portion of a sermon preached by Rev. Sarah on May 21st in Middleham Chapel.

Peter's or that we're Episcopalians is one thing, but what about saying we're members of the Jesus Movement? For some of us that might be an identity we readily claim and name. However, saying we are members of the Jesus Movement and sharing that with others though can be a tricky and challenging thing.

My freshman year of college, Facebook was a still in its early days. It was only available to college students. I remember sitting at my desk with my roommate as she showed me how to set up my profile and what this whole new social networking thing was about. Then we came to the option where you can state your religious view. I was hesitant to type the word "Christian" in the box. This hesitancy was not for lack of relationship with Jesus and or a crisis of faith. No, my love for Jesus had been growing since my childhood, fostered in Sunday School classes at St. Paul's, in bedtime prayers with my parents, stories from my Granny and Grandmama, explored in youth group, and in the pages of my Bible. I loved Jesus, and knew of his deep love for me. My hesitancy with typing "Christian" in that box was that I might be lumped in with many who claim that identity and wield it with judgement, divisiveness, and as a tool to instill fear. What judgments and assumptions would be made about me by calling myself a Christian?

Something I've learned in the years since and one of the central points of Bishop Curry's sermon is that we need witnesses, and not just witnesses in the abstract. "We need evangelists to witness to a way of being Christian that reflects the teaching of Jesus of Nazareth."² And guess what? Those witnesses are you and me. Now I recognize that I just used the word “evangelist,” which sounds an awful lot like “evangelism.” That kind of talk is prone to make Episcopalians squirm a little, myself included. It can be a loaded word with connotations that are not so positive, even damaging. Growing up in the South with divorced parents, and as a member of the LGBT community, I’m familiar with forms of evangelism that I want no part of and can name as wrong across the board in content, form, and intent.

However, I also know that scripture and the words we say weekly from the Book of Common Prayer point to my call...our call to be evangelists. There’s a reclaiming to be had here, reclaiming and re-rooting of what it means to be a witness for Christ that is grounded not in some individual or denominational standard of salvation, but in the teachings and way of Jesus of Nazareth.

Here’s an important truth, are you ready? I am not Paul, great missionary of the New Testament. I am not Michael Curry, preacher extraordinaire. And neither are you. We might read a passage from Acts or listen to a sermon from Michael Curry, and think, wow that is impressive and wonderful. But, I will never preach like that or speak to a bunch of Gentiles on the Aeropagus. That’s probably true, but it doesn’t get us away from Jesus and God’s call for us to be bearers of the gospel. We don’t have to be someone or something that we’re not, but rather we’re called to lean into who we are at the core of our being, a loved child of God. In God we live and move and have our being—a way of being that is uniquely ours, the story of who we are, where we’ve been, and what we still long for that we can each tell.

First Peter 3:15 says, “Always be ready to make your defense to anyone who demands from you an accounting for the hope that is in you; yet do it with gentleness and reverence.” I wonder how you would describe the hope that is within you? What keeps you coming to church on Sundays? How would you describe to a friend how you’ve experienced God in your life? What story would you tell?

We are Resurrection people in a Good Friday world.³ A world that desperately needs us to bear witness to resurrection, new life coming in the midst of death. As Christians, living in the midst of tension is central to our experience of life in Christ. So often, and perhaps in our current national and political climate more than ever, tension is seen as negative. An either/or decision needs to be made, a side taken, a right way or a wrong way, a this or a that. An all or nothing approach is used that doesn’t make space for those who disagree with us or ambiguity.

However, Jesus continually invites us to not fall for the false either/or dichotomy. As Christians we learn to live in unresolved tension, seeing the world through both/and kind of lenses. Following the way of Jesus is one of both grief and joy, cross and tomb. Hope and fear, change and eternal changlessness. Love and struggle. Death and new life. And after all, Jesus is the ultimate both/and—fully human and fully divine. These realities are held together, not in opposition.

³ The origin of this great description is unknown to me. I’ve heard and read it used on several occasions, including by The Right Rev. Michael Curry.

Acts records that reactions to Paul's preaching in Athens were mixed. "When they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some scoffed; but others said, 'We will hear you again about this.' At that point Paul left them. But some of them joined him and became believers, including Dionysius the Areopagite and a woman named Damaris, and others with them" (Acts 17:32-34). Both/and—some scoffed and some became believers. Dionysius and Damarius, along with others, heard something that day that fed their curiosity, resonated with their experience, and made them want to learn more.

When you and I say we are part of the Jesus Movement, the reactions will most likely be also be mixed. Being able to share with someone a story, your story about the hope that is within you, can also transform. I know I'm here with you today, in large part due to others telling me the hope that was within them. They told me about what God was up to in their lives, they were vulnerable and brave enough to share the why behind what they believed.

After Communion we often pray, "Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart." Part of that love and service is being a faithful witness to Christ. Naming for ourselves first what the hope within us is, and then sharing it with gentleness and reverence.

Grant us strength and courage Lord.

Treasurer's Corner

Transparency. The Finance Committee has been reconstituted and now meets each quarter. We have determined that more transparency means that we need to keep all informed of our finances and decision making. As a result, we hope to incorporate into the bulletin the amounts received the previous week, expenses paid, and also totals for year-to-date for income and expenses. Please be patient with the bulletin staff as we sort how we can report this data to you and whether weekly or monthly data would be a better reporting tool. If you have any questions or have an idea to help with this endeavor, please call the church office.

“On the Road Again,” one of my favorite Willie Nelson songs always reminds me of taking a trip. Yup, it’s Summer, and the livin’ is supposed to be easy. Whether you have a stay-cation or vacation, keep safe this Summer. Also, don’t forget we have Vanco to help continue your pledge or other donations (BGM), while you “are on the road again.”

The Parish's 1684 Society Welcomes Four New Members

At the Pentecost service on June 4, the parish will welcome four new members of the 1684 Society. The 1684 Society was established by the Vestry to recognize those persons who have made a significant contribution to the Endowment Fund or a documented planned gift to the parish, such as including the church in their will. Those being welcomed at this time include:

Tom and Wendy Briggs

Barbara Fetterhoff

Steve and Leanne Lyle

David R. Oliver

Members of the 1684 Society know that they have looked beyond this life and made provision for the continuing financial support of their Christian community. Those who support the Parish through a planned gift exemplify the commitment and devotion of those parishioners who, more than three centuries ago established Middleham Chapel, who more than a century ago established St. Peter's Chapel, and who more than fifty years ago built the Parish Hall. The 1684 Society provides an opportunity to recognize these qualities and thank these individuals who insure the Parish's continuing ministry in this lasting and meaningful way.

Both the 1684 Society and the parish's endowment were started in 2004. Since that time, 28 individuals and/or couples have made planned gifts and been welcomed into the Society. With the support of such gifts, the endowment has grown to over $360,000. At the same time, the carefully administered use of the endowment has supported the expansion of the parish's ministries, including grants for:

The Parish's Helpful Harvest Garden

Boy Scout Troop 1684

Support for Echo

Defibrillators in all worship spaces

The Welcome*Connect*Strengthen Project

Habitat for Humanity's Interfaith Build

So join the parish in expressing our appreciation to these new 1684 Society members. If you have not done so, please consider making a planned gift yourself. Planned Giving is administered by the Finance Committee which can assist you in your planning.

MIDDLEHAM AND ST. PETER'S PARISH

Vitality Team Moving Ahead

The parish Vitality Team is spearheading our Welcome-Connect-Strengthen project to grow our parish. The team has drafted a six-month action plan to guide their work in bringing new people to the parish and actions to spread information about the parish to the broader community. Examples of action items include:

- Help to promote attendance at Vacation Bible School
- Make the annual crab feast a special opportunity to invite friends and neighbors
- Provide for the parish to have a presence at Patuxent River Appreciation Days, such as having a float in the parade

Other major aspects of the program that the team will be working on are:

- Communication and Education – getting information to the parish and community and having the parish more fully understand why we are doing the project, and what we are doing.
- Hospitality – a number of actions were suggested in the hospitality audit that was part of the March 3-5 workshop. Much of this has to do with how welcoming we are in the worship spaces. Our clergy is committed to follow up on these, with team and parish support.

At our late April meeting, team members shared their answers to the two following questions. A sampling of responses follows:

What gets you excited about the Welcome Connect Strengthen project?

- It gives me the opportunity to do my part in helping the church to grow.
- We do so many good things that the community doesn't know about. The project provides the opportunity to share what our church is about: kindness / service / faith / open mindedness / everyone is welcome / teaches our children

- It is a great opportunity to grow.
- As a church, we have tried things in the past to grow, but this is different and finally being intentional.
- Taking a long-range perspective, with room to grow, and asking us to get out of our comfort zone.

What are your expectations for the Vitality Team?

- To grow the church
- Bring in younger people, as there is a disproportionate share of older people
- With a balance across ages, we can benefit from a multi-generational church
- To be open minded and actively listen during the process
- The process can have us appreciate our rich tradition
- Have really good options for the church going forward
- Invite baby-boomers, especially as they are seeking a spiritual dimension in their lives, and invite their adult children
- To lead the church, and raise the energy level
- To spread the importance of the personal invitation and bringing people to the parish
- To develop both an outside and an inside aspect of growth. We need to reach out and bring people, but we also need to be prepared to welcome and involve people once they are here

The team will be guided by our consultant Paul Nickerson throughout the project. Paul brings his experience and the successful practices that have worked for growing churches across the country.

Confirmation and Reception Celebrations at the Cathedral

On April 30th, 2017 seven members of the Middleham & St. Peter's Parish community were Confirmed and Received at the Cathedral of the Incarnation in Baltimore. Four of our youth have been working throughout the year with Carolyn Steiner and Franz Kury using the Confirm not Conform curriculum, and have been paired with mentors from the parish to walk with them through this part of their faith journey. The Wednesday night formation series Examining Our Foundations offered earlier in the year was the primary preparation for adults in the parish considering Confirmation and Reception.

The April 30th service at the Cathedral was presided over by The Rt. Rev. Eugene Sutton, Bishop of Maryland, and was a joyful celebration. Over 45 people from across the Diocese were Confirmed or Received, which was a powerful witness to the ongoing work of the Spirit! Many family members, friends, and parishioners made the trip to Baltimore to show their support, and the prayers of many more surrounded the service. We celebrate and continue to hold the following individuals and their families in prayer:

Emily Carpenter

Ethan Carpenter

Pam Hawkins

Miles Hupp

Mackenzie Jedrey

Sally Ray

Jim Wilson

Pssst....What's Confirmation?

Confirmation is a sacramental rite of the church where candidates “express a mature commitment to Christ, and receive strength from the Holy Spirit through prayer and the laying on of hands by a bishop” (Book of Common Prayer, p. 860). Baptism is full initiation into Christ’s body and the church, and the Episcopal Church’s theology around Confirmation no longer sees it as a completion of Christian initiation. Rather, it is an individual adult rite of discipleship that confirms the person’s commitment of faith and the promises made by or for them at the time of their baptism.

How about Reception?

For those who have already made a mature Christian commitment in another denomination through Confirmation by a bishop in another tradition, they can be received into the fellowship of the Episcopal Church and the Anglican Communion. It is a way of becoming publicly affiliated with the Episcopal Church, and another public affirmation of a person’s faith commitment.

If you're interested in learning more about either of these rites, please talk with Fr. David or Rev. Sarah.

MayFest 2017 Thank You

MayFest is over! It happened last Saturday, 5/20, and was a great success. As always, during the week before May Fest, the Great Hall looked like a Great Trash bin. But through many hours of labor every day, the ECW – with plenty of help from others – transformed the room and goods into several attractive displays. Overall, the profit is just over $5,000. Thank you to everyone who donated items, priced things, baked delicious treats for the bake sale, and worked the day of the May Fest. Special thanks to those strong bodies who helped set up on May 14th and helped clean up after it all was over.

BOY SCOUT TROOP 1684

Miles Hupp's Eagle Court of Honor

Coming up this June! Just as an FYI- the Community Life Center will be hosting a Men's Health Meeting on June 15th @ 6PM. This will be co-hosted by Calvert Memorial Hospital as we will be asking men who attend to take information back to their groups on how they can stay healthy. Subjects will include Heart Disease, Cancer, Diabetes, and more. Please try to attend!

Remember just a few safety items to have a great summer:

1. Avoid getting too much sun- the sun's ultraviolet rays can damage your skin in as little as 15 minutes. Try to follow simple rules:
 - a. Seek shade- under trees, umbrella, or any kind of shelter.
 - b. Wear clothing with uv protection and don't forget a hat!
 - c. Sunglasses will protect those sensitive eyes
 - d. SUNSCREEN! a must

2. Lyme disease- Prevention is the key
 - a. Avoid wooded and bushy areas with high grass and leaf litter; Walk in the center of trails.
 - b. Repel Ticks with DEET or Permethrin
 - c. Find and Remove Ticks from Your Body

- d. Bathe or shower as soon as possible after coming indoors (preferably within 2 hours) to wash off and more easily find ticks that are crawling on you.
- e. Conduct a full-body tick check using a hand-held or full-length mirror to view all parts of your body upon return from tick-infested areas. Parents should check their children for ticks under the arms, in and around the ears, inside the belly button, behind the knees, between the legs, around the waist, and especially in their hair.
- f. Examine gear and pets. Ticks can ride into the home on clothing and pets, then attach to a person later, so carefully examine pets, coats, and day packs.
- g. Tumble clothes in a dryer on high heat for an hour to kill remaining ticks. (Some research suggests that shorter drying times may also be effective, particularly if the clothing is not wet.)

One last thing- always be sure to watch for all our children on bikes and walking/playing about. Have a great summer, but be careful- we want you to stick around for a very long time!
